BRANFORD TOWN MEETING.
A call has been issued for a special town meeting to be held in the Town hall next Wednesday afternoon, December 28, at 2 o'clock, for the following purposes:

To take what action is deemed best in regard to the heating of the town hall; to place a cellar under part of same, and build cells in which to confine prisoners and do away with present jail.

To take action relative to furnishing additional school room at Stony Creek.

To take action upon petition of W. R. Foote and others, asking the town to instruct the selectmen to obey vote passed in January, 1898, regarding fire insurance policies and also to cancel all policies which have been written since that vote was passed.

To transact any other business that might come before the meeting relative to insurance policies.

To take action relative to purchasing hose and hose carts for fire purposes.

CHRISTIAN STAR LODGE.

The installation of officers of Christian Star Lodge, No. 1454, G. U. O. of O. F., will take place on Wednesday evening, January 4, at which time H. H. Hicks, grand master of the state of Connecticut, is expected to be present, accompanied by his cabinet.

IN AND ABOUT THE COURTS

SEVERAL DIVORCES GRANTED BY JUDGE RORABACK.

Decrees of Foreclosure—Will of Late Austin Mansfield Probated—Proceedings in Edgerton vs. Starin.

The suit of William C. Edgerton against John H. Starin, to collect $109,000, came up again in the United States district court, before Judge Townsend yesterday. The plaintiff alleges that according to a contract he was to have 10 per cent. of the profits of the New York and New Haven line of steamers for a term covering over twenty years. He now sues to recover what is due him on the contract. The suit was first brought in the superior court of this city and was afterward remanded to the United States court. The plaintiff now desires to remand the case to the superior court of New York state.

At the short calendar session of the superior court yesterday Judge Roraback granted a decree of divorce to Fannie E. Holton from Howard W. Holton of Stony Creek on the ground of desertion. They were married August 25, 1891.

Divorces on ground of desertion were granted Jennie M. from George H. Clingan. They were married in 1880.

Frederick J. Margeson was granted a divorce from May L. Margeson on the ground of desertion. They were married in 1885.

Nellie Cone was granted a divorce from her husband, Charles L. Cone, on the grounds of desertion.

Marshall Bryon was granted a foreclosure by sale against property at 9 Wooster Place, owned by Dr. Henry Gill, who is now in the state prison. Mr. Bryon holds a mortgage of $200 against the property. Edwin S. Thomas was appointed to conduct the sale.

The appraisers appointed were John T. Sloan, William H. Staub and Robert T. Merwin. The property is worth from $8,000 to $10,000. Dr. Gill still holds a small equity in it.

Receiver Isbell of the Bradley, Dann & Carrington company was authorized to pay the counsel fees incurred in the firm's court experience. The amount was given at $215.55.

Thomas G. Bennett was granted a decree of foreclosure of a second mortgage lien on property of Merritt W. Burwell on Whitney avenue. The property is valued at $25,000. There are several other liens on the property. The second mortgage foreclosed is for $2,000. Attorney W. S. Fardee was appointed a committee of the court to sell the property on or before April 1. R. T. Merwin, L. G. Hoadley and Michael Dillon were appointed as appraisers.

At the East Pearl street church tomorrow the pastor, Rev. R. T. McNicholl, will preach in the morning on the subject "The Star of the East," and in the evening the subject will be "Glorifying the Gospel."

George Morton, chief baggage agent of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, is confined to his home in Mt. Carmel with an attack of the grip.

William M. Clancy will spend Christmas at his home in Naugatuck, leaving here today.

Professor Martin T. Reynolds, the well known organist of this city, who was musical director of the Church of the Sacred Heart for years, has gone to Lowell, Mass., to officiate at the Christmas exercises in the Church of the Immaculate Conception of that city.

The pastor of the church, the Rev. John Reynolds, O. M. L., is a cousin of Professor Reynolds, and he invited him to officiate at the organ there on Christmas day.

Mrs. Nettleton of Branford will address Frances Willard union at its regular meeting on Saturday afternoon, December 31.

The many friends of Mrs. Frederick E. Jenks of No. 31 Howe street will regret to learn that she is quite seriously ill. She has been in poor health for some time past, and not long ago it was necessary for her physicians to perform an operation for an abdominal trouble. Another operation must be performed next month and it is hoped that she will eventually recover her health.

Harry Danforth is home for the Christmas holidays.

Elliot P. King of Toledo is the guest of friends on Elm street.

Mrs. Blanche Lincoln of this city is visiting friends in New York city and Boston.

Miss Nellie Howland of Eld street is confined to her home with a severe case of grip.

Acting School Visitor T. S. Devitt of Branford has a number of applications for the position of principal and supervisor of the public schools there, made vacant by the resignation of Henry C. Moore. The board of education will probably elect Mr. Moore's successor tonight.

Miss Isabelle Cromwell will remain in Virginia with Professor Richards and family until early in the new year.

Mrs. S. B. Mills and family of Mount Vernon are guests at the Delavan house in Branford. They will remain through the holidays.

Dr. Ned Kingman is expected to reach New Haven from South America about January 12. He has been absent about two years as physician at a mining post in the interior and will surrender his position to Dr. Moulton of this city, who sailed about three weeks ago for that point. Mrs. Kingman (nee Corburn) returned to New Haven about a year ago.

Building permits have just been issued to Mrs. James J. Gibson of a two family frame dwelling on Sherman avenue to cost $4,000. Mohrman & Co. have the building contract, and F. A. Stow, the mason work.

John E. Geary will build a one family frame dwelling on Whitney avenue, near Huntington street, to cost $6,000. Smith & Co., masons, have the contracts.

PANIC NARROWLY AVERTED.
South Norwalk, Dec. 23.—A Christmas tree in room No. 1 of the Center school of Norwalk, Principal Tucker, took fire while the candles on it were being lighted by the teacher, Miss White, shortly before noon to-day, and a serious blaze was the result. Visitors pulled the tree down and extinguished the flames with buckets of water.

In the meantime all the rooms of the school had become filled with smoke, and the excitement was so intense that a panic among the children was imminent. The fire drill alarm was sounded and the building emptied of its 350 pupils in two minutes. An alarm of fire was turned in, and firemen laid hose, but it was not required. The danger was principally to the woodwork near the tree.

TO REDUCE INTEREST RATE.
Bridgeport, Dec. 22.—All the savings banks in the city will have to drop the rate of interest on mortgage loans from five to four and one-half per cent., beginning with the first of January.

William B. Hinks, treasurer of the City Savings bank, said to-day that the trustees of the bank had held a meeting at the beginning of the present month and decided to place the rate of interest, beginning with January 1, at four and one-half per cent. This was applied to mortgage loans alone.

The proposition in the bank will be paid the same rate of interest, four per cent., on all deposits, the first of January, but when the next dividend comes up, in July, Mr. Hinks did not know but what they would have to place the rate of interest at three and one-half per cent.

The other savings banks here will pay but four and one-half per cent. on mortgage loans.

COMING POULTRY SHOW.
Will be Given in the New Music Hall Next Week.

The sixth exhibition given by the New Haven Poultry association will begin next Wednesday, December 28, and continue until Saturday night, December 31. It will be held in Music hall on Court street. The prospects that the show will be the best ever held by the association are very flattering.

The entry list is the largest ever known and poultry from all of the New England and several other states will be on exhibition. Some of the best known fanciers and breeders in the country will be here and show their finest specimens. There will be turkeys, ducks, geese, ornamental fowls and pigeons on exhibition.

A splendid lot of prizes will be given away and a part of them is at present on exhibition in the window of Walter Leigh's clothing store on Church street. The judges will be selected from their known experience with the different varieties, and none will be allowed to exhibit in the classes they are to judge. The officers of the association are all well known residents of the city, and this insures the public that the show will be well worth attending.

Was Too Weak to Do Her Housework but Now She is Well and Hood's Sarsaparilla Keeps the Whole Family Healthy.

"My mother was always tired and was so weak she could not do any housework. She took many different medicines but nothing would help her. One day we saw an advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla and she determined to try it. After taking two bottles she was able to do her work. Since then we have Hood's Sarsaparilla on hand and it keeps us healthy."

MISS LILLIE NELSON, 128 Jubilee Street, New Britain, Conn.

"My boy lost flesh and his health was very poor. We began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a week he was improving and it was not long before he was entirely well. Hood's Sarsaparilla has kept him well ever since." Mrs. C. H. MORELY, 149 S. Elm Street, Waterbury, Conn.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Hooker, daughter of Thomas Hooker of the board of education, who has been ill for about three weeks with typhoid fever, was somewhat easier yesterday. The crisis was passed on Thursday and while it is regarded that she is somewhat better, her condition is still very serious. Dr. S. D. Gilbert is in attendance.

George Morton, chief baggage agent of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, is confined to his home in Mt. Carmel with an attack of the grip.

William M. Clancy will spend Christmas at his home in Naugatuck, leaving here today.

Professor Martin T. Reynolds, the well known organist of this city, who was musical director of the Church of the Sacred Heart for years, has gone to Lowell, Mass., to officiate at the Christmas exercises in the Church of the Immaculate Conception of that city.

NEW RAILROAD STATION.

The foundation for the new railroad station at Niantic has been completed, and the floor timbers have been laid and a portion of the frame raised. The building is to be sixty feet long and will require but a short time for its construction, as the timbers have been cut and fitted at the Consolidated shops in this city, after the usual custom of the road nowadays.

MISSING BRISTOL GIRL.
Bristol, Conn., Dec. 23.—Mary Johnson, aged eighteen, disappeared from her home Sunday and has not been heard from since. She left a note with her mother saying that she would be gone only a short time. Her continued absence has nearly prostrated her mother, as she is an only daughter. The police have been notified. It is thought that she might possibly be visiting an intimate friend in Boston or her brother in New York. Both places have been written to in regard to the girl, but no answer has been received.

Months ago we began thinking about holiday perfumes; and see what the thinking has amounted to. It has resulted in special importations, in securing new odors that will not be seen elsewhere in New Haven for months to come, in getting price concessions that mean large saving for you. You will sin against your own purse and satisfaction if you overlook our line. This is a hint for next month's buying, but the goods are here and re-handled people needn't wait.
